

Nuggets of Wisdom from the Agartha to Humanity Symposium

By Allison Gee, Symposium Attendee

Tamarinda Maassen, an ambassador of Agartha, was the main speaker at this event from August 25th-August 27th, 2017 in Garden City, NY. She has a surface life, but can travel to Agartha whenever she wants to. She says she had a lot of help to get a body on the surface. She came here to serve and fulfill a purpose, to provoke some change, and to fulfill a paradox. She lives in Romania where there is a holographic pyramid and an entrance to the Inner Earth Kingdom. She has been making negotiations for at least 10 years to get this Symposium to happen.

Other speakers were Peter Moon, Dr. David Anderson, and Duncan Cameron.

Please keep in mind when you read these nuggets of wisdom: I cannot possibly convey to you in writing everything I experienced during the three days I spent at the Symposium. These are just nuggets of wisdom to get you thinking about your reality. Tamarinda Maassen primarily spoke Romanian and was being translated into English through a translator, her adopted son Teo. She can speak and understand English, but her teachings and wisdom were best transmitted for her through speaking Romanian. No photo, video or audio recording of the presentations was allowed for attendees. We had to hand write all our notes. Now you are reading this wisdom from me, so you are getting a second hand translation from a translation from Romanian, and some grammar may not be perfect. PLEASE keep this in mind as you read this note, and do not judge the speakers for the information and messages conveyed. Thank You!

Tamarinda also stated several times during the Symposium that she tries to put these profound concepts into simple terms so as not to disrupt our mind and our reality. She wants it to be easy for us to grasp an understanding of these greater concepts she is trying to convey when it comes to information about the Inner Earth.

Here are the nuggets of wisdom from her and the speeches at the Symposium~

There are now more extraterrestrials on this planet than there are humans. You are all extra terrestrials, and someday you will have to go home. This will be the difficult part because you may have built some attachment to this reality.

“The human mind is a time machine and consciousness is its vehicle.”
~statement from Peter Moon about what Dr. David Anderson might say.

Agartha is not a place, it is a space. You can't get there by accident. Your consciousness has to be ready.

If the circumference of Earth is 40,000Km than you know you are in this reality and not in the Inner Earth because the Earth is bigger on the inside than it is on the outside.

This is a depiction she drew of the layers of realities. 7 layers below true Earth, and 7 layers above true Earth. This is like the chakras, harmonic resonance, and vibratory frequency. The top half is very high vibration or “The Realm of the Gods” and the bottom half is very low vibration or “The Realm of the Demons” (this is not to say one is better than the other, they are just ranges of vibratory frequency of reality). Agartha exists at the True Earth point:

O True Earth, The Terra, This is where the reality of Agartha lives.

--- Our reality is down here. A very low vibration. We are trying to get up to the True Earth point.

When a person is at the point of the most suffering, then they call out to God. Not until they are suffering do they call out. Then spiritual growth happens.

This reality tries to push you to look outside instead of inside, but when you close your eyes this reality disappears. There are no bad beings, it is just an experiment. The Agarthans see the surface people as their brothers and sisters who decided to experience an experiment, an experiment in suffering and destruction, an experiment in survival.

When you find the power within, no one can rule you and you can have your own experiment here.

All your thoughts effect your cells, the cells multiply the vibration of thoughts, consciousness, and emotions. When you go home, stop the thoughts that stop you to live. The cell will vibrate with your thoughts. Hope has a high frequency, the hope that you will get better will change your cells.

Each day is a hologram you decided to live in the quantum potential you decided on before coming here. Say you chose to live 100 years, then there are about 36,525 hologram pages, one for each day, in the book of your life's quantum potential. Here you are on a holiday but you can't take anything with you when you go home. This is an adventure, it can be one of pain, destruction, and suffering. When you go home from a vacation or an adventure, what do you do? You tell everybody what you did. You just can't take any souvenirs from this vacation.

Akasha means home. A library for all experience.

Everything you see is a hologram, created before your existence. We have the capacity to take a 2D hologram and project it into a 3D reality like a projection.

The mirror will never show you what you are, it will only show you what you have in mind you are. If you look in the mirror and say how ugly I must be, that is what you have in mind you are and you will be ugly to you, no matter if someone else comes along and says, "oh no, you are very beautiful."

Everything Tamarinda is trying to tell you, you already know, but you have to live it, not just know it, and that is the more difficult part. Change the way you choose to live and experience. Now I decide what I want to see in the mirror.

The mind changes the body not the other way around.

Quantum says there are no rules, only resonance. What you say and what you do is what you get.

This reality is a reflection of paradise. Some people decided to live a hell in the paradise.

How did the Romanians get rid of their enemies? Gave them gold because they knew it would make their enemies go crazy.

An audience member asked about the financial reset, coming from China, the Dragon family, and being backed by gold.

Tamarinda's response to this was again, do you remember how the Romanians got rid of their enemies? A money backed by gold will still make you go crazy, so why would you want to accept this?

Shamballah is the capitol inside Inner Earth. You can visit Shamballah in the sleep. You can take your consciousness there.

The personality is the being of your consciousness. There is dragon in your personality. Dragon means dear one or beloved. The personality is only from here, from this reality. It is ego, competition, fear, all of those kind of things. The dragon doesn't want to listen to love and it wants to maintain control. If you succeed to teach the dragon to be compassionate, loving, and kind you will help the dragon to be immortal too, which is what it wants. You should have power over the dragon not the dragon over you. You are love, forgiveness, ether. When you are only yourself, your true self, you have no duality, life is not good or bad, like this and not like this.

She told us a story that in the realm of demons, the king of demons wanted a wife, so God sent him a wife in the form of a beautiful woman (who was actually a God). At the wedding the Gods appeared, and the king of demons thought how wonderful it was that his bride could make Gods appear. She was going to go down the row and give everyone a sip of the elixir of immortality, starting with the row of Gods first. The demons didn't like that the Gods got to go first. So one smart demon placed himself at the end of the row of Gods disguised in the skin of a God. When the bride got to the end of the row she discovered what the demon had done and cut its head off and threw it over to the dark side of the moon where they now sit and wait, watching us, because they still want to be like Gods. And that head was a head of the Draco. I really liked her stories because they helped me understand these grand concepts, but I would imagine it is like telling stories to kindergarteners so they will understand the world.

Earth is like a pregnant woman who will give birth to New Earth.

Tamarinda used the notes of Do, Re, Mi, Fa, So, La, Ti, Do to try to explain the layers of reality, like the 7 chakras. She says you have 7 chakras and 5 black holes(the spaces between the chakras). From Mi down is the dragon's realm. This reality is created by music. The music of "Swan Lake" was used to help create this temporal reality. This reality is an illusion, nothing from here is real.

Lamda is Tamaranda's name in Agartha (sounds more like a metaphor to me than a name). She is 2 meters tall. She looks human but quite tall. (She showed us a photograph of her body in Agartha, she said there is a way to get photos from Agartha to the surface). She had a lot of help to switch bodies. Her body in Agartha is like it is asleep when she is here. In Agartha you can see all the beings. She showed us a photo of her master teacher in Agartha. He looks human, very peaceful and serene like a Buddha, but he has 4 arms. He is an interterrestiral. She asked that I not share this photo, even though it is on her Facebook, because she said people would judge her and judge this photo. She also had photos of the holographic pyramid that appears, she says, every year on August 6th in the Bucegi Mountains in Romania at Cioclovina).

She did say that the Agarthans have been here for about 17 million years and they eat like vegetarians.

She was asked by an audience member why she was allowed to share info with us, that perhaps it might be dangerous because many forces on the surface might not want us to know these things. Tamarinda said it was dangerous, but she has been negotiating for 10 years to get this Symposium to happen, and they've let her do it because they see the changes coming and they also want what's good for humanity because it will be good for them.

Don't want to take Asprin? Take a paper, write Asprin on it, put a glass of water on the paper and tell the water "Asprin Asprin Asprin." It will have the vibration of Asprin. Drink it, you'll see, as long as you believe. If you walk around saying "This is paradise, this is paradise," it will become paradise.

You want to say mantras fast, not slow, not singing them. So if you say, "Asprin, asprin, asprin" fast it will work better. She talked about people singing the Gaia Tree mantra on places like Youtube, and she said it wasn't holding the energy it is supposed to when you say it fast.

All your body is your brain. Hormones=Harmony. From your brain you can effect your body, not the other way around.

The atmosphere on Earth was created by your ancestors. Atmosphere around Earth is like electron around nucleus. All your attachments are like electrons around nucleus and hold you to the Earth, that is what the gravity is- all your attachments around the planet. The first attachment in this reality is created when the baby sees the mother. Enlightenment is when all your attachments disappear, you overcome all these attachments and become like a nucleus with no electrons, no gravity holding them to the Earth and all of that energy is free, not encapsulated by the electrons/attachments and you have more energy to return home.

The biggest attachment here in this reality is to self importance, to grab attention, to create an image. It takes a lot of energy to hold the image/personality/identity. When you stop that and just be yourself, the light will come through.

Air is the love of God. You need to breathe air to survive. Love glues God and human experience together into one place. God creates beings from its consciousness. Your body represents God in matter. When God and the creation get further apart there is time, space, and distance. You can travel anywhere in this time, space, and distance. She drew this diagram with 7 dots like the chakras:

O Wisdom

O God realm Christ

O Destiny

• _ mirror

O

O Human realm Creation

O Trust

Your body represents God in matter. Traveling in time is always done in the Christ area (third eye area or, I would suppose, the pineal gland). All your dreams are in the Christ area. All past, present, and future are in Christ at the same time. When children play, they have no attachments, they are connected to the past and future all at the same time, they say they play with fairies and parent says no there are no fairies you are crazy. You don't need to interfere in the children's world of play, sometimes you can let them be responsible for solving their own problems, they can be fighting for toy one minute and laughing the next. If you try to stop them fighting all the time you will cause yourself upset. Adults are the ones who fight over toy and hold revenge and anger the next minute.

You must have Honor, Virtue, and Impeccability - continuing an action to the end so you don't create karma and unfinished business.

We have 24 strands DNA but most people only use 22, 24 and 23 are collapsed into number 22. 24 and 23 represent love, peace, and altruism. 5D is Earth form but you must first go past love state, you must first learn to love yourself. People fear love because they don't want to lose their power. They think if they love, someone else will take power over them, but they are wrong, they will be the most powerful when they love. Love is not a story, it is a substance like a plasma. This plasma represents substance of the universe called Love. Love is like a glue for the body. Disease is not enough glue to hold the body together, not enough love. If you love yourself you can love anyone. Buying a car for yourself is not an example of loving yourself, the dragon will always look for comfort.

Human has 144 Chakras. Spleen is the chief of immune system, if you control or take out the immune system, you have taken down the whole citadel.

P40 is highest pair of DNA. P40 represents the defense of the citadel, the immune system. God defends the body. To rule lots of people you need to break the citadel. Scientists created P24=HIV. Total destruction of the immune system means the take down of the citadel. You die when your defense, the immune system, is broken. Quantum healing can heal these visitors in the body. When you are tired and your immune system is down, your body vibrates at very low energy, 3 or 4 hertz. When you are tired and run down your immune system can't protect the citadel and you lose purpose because you become sad or depressed.

Stem cells are holographic and are a genetic, like a fingerprint.

If you want to change the world and from that point, you make a change, then the world will change. Anything you do, say, or think, will come back to you and you will be the only receiver. For example: if you want people to talk nice to you, you have to talk nice to others first. You have to be the first one to make the action, to make the change.

If you receive help, do something in exchange so there is energetic exchange and you don't make karma, which is unfinished energy exchange. Say your neighbor has a dog and the dog has babies and the neighbor gives you a puppy, you need to do something nice in exchange to your neighbor, a payment or something, because the dog, the puppy, and everything can sense when that energy exchange has occurred, if not that puppy will never really be your dog, it will still belong to someone else.

Do you know why King Arthur was a king? Because in a previous life he was so poor and gave everything away to people. His whole life as this poor person he wanted to own a country. So much karma was created that it sprang back to him in a next life, he had to become king. He didn't really want to become a king, but he had no choice to take the reigns, and all of that energy that was created had to be given back to him. Karma can be used to explain the concept of unfinished business.

When asked by an audience member about the outcomes and purpose Tamarinda wants to see from the Symposium:

We are all in each other's auric field and can organize our mind in consciousness. After the symposium, the transformation will occur. If you are happy, you have power and strength to help others. If the hurricane comes, you still have a choice to be happy. After the symposium you will be free of all the projects effecting you until now. (Teo suggests: don't use it on stupid things). A wave of energy happened when Tamarinda stepped foot onto the land of the United States. She had many other meetings to go to, the symposium was not the only purpose for coming here. (She is also some type of General who participates in political dealings and meetings.)

When asked by audience member about 2012:

Apocalypse means change, not a tragedy. In one culminating point everyone will pray to God. The software of this reality was generated by a computer. After 2012, the software stopped working, now there is no more software. There are programs to relearn the humans, but advanced beings can't decide on how to help the humans reprogram. In 2012, 3 billion of holograms disappeared from this reality and in 2018, 2 billion more will disappear. (She prefaced the last sentence that she was going to tell us something we should forget). Every being a person sees now is a projection. Take a look at your actions since 2012. If you changed, you are part of the future. If you did not change, you disappeared and ceased to exist in 2012. Like your neighbor who always fights with his wife, is he still fighting with his wife since 2012 because that is all you have known him to do? If you changed your mind about his behavior and actions, would your projection of him still be perpetually that he always fights with his wife? Check- are you a projection in an illusion or are you real in an illusion?

So are you living now or not? So be it.

The ego denial wall was in 2012, after 2012 we are all pushing the reality so we don't have to go through the cataclysmic cycle. We are physically changing our dimensional reality. What was once 100% probability is now 80%. After the dimensional wall at 2012, now our consciousness or psyche can go over the wall.

When you talk, you take energy into your destiny.

Here Teo, Tamarinda's son who is a Tibetan Monk, taught the audience a lot about the Tibetan art of making mandalas, moving chi, and using the runic alphabet to change vibratory frequency and effect the change you wish to see in your life. Basically these arts use the alphabet, numerology, movement, sound, and colors formed together into a certain way, activated, and placed in a person's life to evoke change.

A mandala is created from words transformed into numerology and into sacred geometry. A mandala without knowledge inside will never work. When it rotates it will create a field.

You can put runes and mandalas in clothes and wear clothes of the gods.

Put mandala on glass and it will shine through with light and its energy.

Tamarinda says Castles in Agartha are built as the shape of a mandala. Their foundation is this shape and the building is projecting that vibration into the space. They try to do this up here too, but they don't do a very good job.

Do not/we cannot use spiritual knowledge to harm others or be selfish. It will bounce back to you in your auric field. Your auric field will capture all the actions you send out into your life and they will bounce back and be reflected back to you.

From Teo~ Since people think God is a man, I don't know why, but we will say he, a father. If you are a real father, even here on the Earth, and you have children, you will look at your children and you will love them. If they make mistakes, you will love them and you will help them. A real father doesn't send his children to hell, this is stupid, a real father loves his children no matter what. A real father loves his children unconditionally. Stop believing God will punish you, you will only punish yourself. This is not about religion, I don't mean to offend anyone. This is common sense on how we do it on Earth. If you are a real father, you will love your children, as above so below and as downstairs so upstairs. God is always with you wherever you go or however you move so why have fear? There is no reason for that! A woman gives birth to her children so who created this universe? A feminine energy. So God is not a man, or he is not just a man. Maybe God is an it or it is not a man or a woman. Each man and woman have both masculine and feminine energy inside them. A woman can give birth to both a man and a woman so we need to have more respect for women and pay more attention to them and why they do the things they do, why they are so intuitive and everything like that. I am not a feminist, but this is serious, men need to pay more attention and have more respect for the woman here. I am not saying women are better than men, men are just as important. Men have potential to create another child, he holds the treasure of potentials of the whole universe inside him.

Tamarinda adds~ Men holds millions of potentials in his sperm to create life into the universe. This is his treasure.

All great scientists will reach a point where their technology and theories will not work so they have to learn spirituality. If you ask how the Vimanas work you will get an answer that they work with the sweat of dirty socks. They are made of wood that is alchemically transformed into an indestructible metal. It becomes a living being. Technology needs spirit to work. Technology without spirit will never work, it will just be a hunk of metal but they do not tell you this. Tamarinda says she is a general in three different countries she wouldn't name. Part of her job is to examine technology, like airplane engines and "put spirit into them." I would guess this would be like making them a living being like the Vimanas.

Question from the audience: Does Agartha have military defense?

No, Agartha has no need for this. They only have knights that are defenders of divine consciousness.

You are only sacred geometry.

If you have harmony and you are your own harmony, you have a certain vibration of consciousness and can get to Agartha.

Natzis wanted to enter Shamballah, which is in Agartha. They were looking for mountains in Tibet to enter but they didn't know that the mountains they were looking for were actually in Romania. Hitler had to accumulate all the cancer of humanity in one being. If he didn't do this, this reality would not exist. Hitler lived on the same street as Stalin and 7 Tibetan monks. He did not know this but the monks were sent there to watch over him. When Hitler found the mountains in Tibet the monks gave him the technology of television so he wouldn't go into another dimension or reality and take more powerful destructive technology. They satisfied him with the tv technology and what did Hitler say about his new technology? "Great! now we have a device that can create a tyrant from within every home."

All the pyramids were built on the grid of the planet to maintain this reality so it would not collapse in on itself.

The Philadelphia Experiment reached 5D by breaking time, lots of energy was needed to do this. When you break time you do not do it linearly. Time is like a cone hologram, inside you just have consciousness.

Question from the audience about "Wing Makers:"

The job of the Wing Makers is to correct the past because they know the future.

Question from the audience about Aurora Borealis and if Inner Earth has something to do with this: Aurora Borealis is the remnants of Inner Earth's crystal sun. (I think she said it had something to do with the sun and solar wind interacting with Agartha's crystal sun inside the Earth.)

In this reality there are so many schools of wisdom. They each have one page of a book. Now it is time to put all those pages together to make one book.

Question from the audience about smoking and chemicals in everything, including our food: The tobacco positively effects the brain and extends life and is good for the neural network. This is why it is sacred to the native ancient peoples and this is why when you see sages and alchemists in stories and books, they always have a pipe. The poison is in the thoughts, not the pipe. There are now more extra terrestrials on this planet than humans. They need those chemicals in your food to provoke what it causes in you so they can feed off of that. (someone commented she was talking about loosh.) The cancer is in the mind, not the food. If your consciousness has a high enough vibration, cancer cannot live and you will not get cancer from your reality. If you eat something and you think it is bad for you or you think it will make you fat, then it will be bad for you. You can also do a blessing on your food to change its vibratory frequency. Everything in your reality is about consciousness, do you understand?

Odin came from Transylvania. He was a Hyperborean. The Hyperboreans from Romania is where civilization spread from.

The first competition for the gods was destruction.

Audience question about pyramids in Antarctica and global warming or the ice melting there: The melting of ice is needed to happen in Antarctica because it is connected to other spots like Mt. McKinley in Alaska and Sarmizegetusa in Romania. ETs use these to land craft at these places because they have bases underneath. They are based on how the constellations looked like in a certain year.

When I asked Tamarinda a question about whether or not there will be a pole shift she said, "This info you heard was incomplete, it always is like this." Consciousness in the body travels NW to SE and culminates at a point on the upper back on the right side. It does this on the human body and on the Earth, which is a living organism.

OOO|OOO|OOO

Past of past, past, future of past | past of present, present, future of present | past of future, future, future of future (this is what each O represents in the diagram).

The past (3) has a past and future. The present (6) has a past and future and the future (9) has a past and future. What does a woman do before she cleans the house? She takes out the rugs and gets out the broom and all the cleaning supplies, and she makes a big mess. A big cleaning always starts with a big mess. (I think this analogy was used in relation to the shift in consciousness or any kind of "pole shift" information I had heard. She did say that after 2012, if we could raise the vibration of our consciousness, we would not have to experience the cataclysmic cycle.)

During a break an attendee asked Tamarinda if the Blue Avians were coming into our solar system through the sun with their spheres to regulate the energy and bring it down to help us humans and the plants and animals on Earth.

Tamarinda said, Yes I know what you are talking about but the plants and animals don't need this, only the humans.

You are a quant (a quantum). You are born and all your life experience is recorded at the edge of your auric field.

When you are going through your life which is a hologram projected from the right side of your head. If you have a misunderstanding you place that quant (quantum potential) into your next life, your next quantum holiday here, to clear up that understanding. But if your life is full of quants it is such a big mess you may get confused. Many of you here may feel this way. When people have such a life full of quantum lessons, that is when they start to reach out to God and they grow spiritually.

In one culminating point everyone will pray to God.

Quantically your life means consciousness and energy in movement. Mind is the action of consciousness. To move mind through consciousness you need to have a purpose.

If you decide to have your mind in the collective consciousness you will be influenced by so many other consciousnesses. If you change your mind, you will change your result. Do not let the thoughts of others enter your mind and tell you what to do.

We all decided what to talk about before we came here.

A lot of energy goes through the mind to process the info you are receiving. This is why you feel sleepy even when you are not tired. Even if you fall asleep Tamarinda can talk to you and you will understand.

Question from the audience about the cause of autism:

As far as she knows things like autism are provoked by virus and bacteria, particularly parasites related to herpes, Lyme disease, and hepatitis. With autism the parasite sits on the brain and eats the neural network (borelli borhofeti, spelling?) This bacteria can be provoked through the frequency of 421,000-435,000 htz. Your body is 7.8 htz, so they vibrate so much higher so how can you get rid of them, they need your reality to survive, what kind of tools can you use? You need to raise your consciousness. Hepatitis attacks the liver, it is the only organ that totally regenerates once every two weeks and is responsible for cleaning all the blood in the body. The blood travels in a Z pattern like Zorro, so blood goes from liver to heart to brain. Those who have a liver problem are likely to have a heart attack.

Question from the audience- What about ADD/ADHD? The morphogenic Network of the planet is agitated and little children have lots of energy and are reacting to this agitation without knowing it. They are very sensitive. Also is caused by a parasite called limber coitis (spelling?). This same parasite leads to autoimmune disorders. Limbre coitis also makes asthma and destroys immune system. Use garlic. Tamarinda can look at a person and how they walk and she can tell what kind of parasites this person has inside their body. Energetically the food for the universe eats its own self. What if these parasites came from someplace else in the universe and came here to start feeding with God? When time was broken, millions of ETs came here. Limbre coitis vibrates at 409,000 htz. Body vibrates at 7.8 htz. If you are a little more awake you can vibrate at up to 18 htz. So what are you going to do?

You have at least 10,000 more microorganisms in your body than you do human cells. They can provoke you. You need to talk with them and make agreements. They feed with the chemical reactions of emotions from the body. They get stronger with an acidic environment in the body and chemicals. When you feel provoked, just breathe and stop the thoughts. These microorganisms take over your mind and infect and make you do things. When you clean and clean these out of your body, you will be yourself again and you can fly, you can go home.

Your soul comes down in a magenta light and stays behind the heart all the time. (I think this is the "violet flame.")

Question from audience about when soul enters fetus and abortion:

Soul decides and comes into aura of parents 12 months before conception and makes their parents get together and make the baby. It does not care if they are married, it has no judgement, it just finds the parents that can help them fulfill the quantum potential they decided on. Then on conception the soul takes it. The soul won't come into the fetus until 3-4 months pregnancy, when the mother starts to feel the first movements. You can't abort a soul, you can only abort a body. That soul does not care, it has no judgement, it will go find new parents that can help it fulfill its quantum potential decision. Ha ha, then maybe it will go to the neighbor because that's close by and the neighbor has a baby but it is not yours. You take it to your house and you love it so much but it is not your baby, it is the neighbor's baby.

The first birth is done through a woman. Rebirth or second birth is more difficult and is done through the mind, into Christ Consciousness.

The real family is up where the souls are. You are part of a big family of souls that evolve together.

Look in both sides of a silver spoon. You will see one image is upside down. Same as here on earth. This is an illusion. Why do you think babies come out head first?

Question from audience about coming out feet first:

Then that child will always be attached to their mother.

Did you know mothers are responsible for their children's sickness- mothers, fathers, any parental caregiver, even could be grandparents. They say "oh, you are sick, you are not feeling well," and then the child gets sick and more sick and then catches a cold, not the other way around. Do you understand?

You can talk to a person, a child, even a 50 year old child, while they are sleeping and tell them all the things you wish you could say. Or you can also do this for any sick person. While they are sleeping you can say something to them and their aura and their quantum energy field will heal. For instance you could say to your sleeping child, "When I found out I was pregnant with you I wished you were dead, I wished to kill you, but now that you are born I love you very much, and thank you for teaching me about this love." Or you can say to a very sick person, "You are healthy, you are rejuvenated..." and they will get better faster. The quantum field will repair itself. Wait at least 49 days to see how this has changed the person and your life. You could see results sooner, but give it at least 49 days.

Question from the audience about Donald Trump's son:

His son is a Negual, (spelling?). He is a powerful being like a double spirit. What is a Negual? Many of you here are Negual, this means they have the dragon and the spirit at the same time and Negual has power to control the dragon, not the other way around. In this situation the son is more powerful than the dad.

You have 7 layers of the aura at 50 cm. Then another 7 layers further out. These represent your consciousness. The second field rotates same as the first with the dragon, but when you start to wake up your consciousness, the second field starts to spin in the opposite direction as the first. This creates an anti gravity effect and you can go home. This is called enlightenment.

You promised your brothers and sisters to come down here and experience this experiment. Nothing is good or bad. All your thoughts exist all over the place. You are the greatest Gods to exist. That is why you came here. They stay in Agartha to wait for you to stop all this stupid nonsense.

You have all of creation inside of you. The fetus goes through the forms of all life on the planet.

There are more planets with intelligent life on them where the peoples live inside the planet, not on the surface. When you live on the surface, you are exposed to solar wind and other things that are a result of the planet moving through space. This causes things like aging. It is an experiment for things to come up here to live on the surface of the planet to see what will happen. This is the reason people would live on the surface of their planet, to have an experiment like this one.

Wisdom from Peter Moon~

There is a sphinx in Romania. There is a chamber under that sphinx. This chamber is connected to other spots, other chambers, on the Earth like Egypt and Tibet. They are connected by tunnels. In this chamber is great technology, including a holographic computer that is bioresonant. It has a place for your hand, and if you put your hand on it, it will show you all the linages of your DNA, including from the star people. In the next room there is a projector, again it is bioresonant. If a person is watching the projector, it will show them the history of humans and the Earth from that person's perspective, so it will show them the history of their ancestors.

Transylvania in Romania is where there is an entrance to Inner Earth. Hollywood purposefully created the image of Dracula there to discourage people away from this place. Kansas in the United States was almost named New Transylvania. There is also another entrance to Inner Earth in the Mammoth Cave in Kansas. Sometimes people will find caves big enough for 40 story tall sky scrapers and a whole city. For us not to think there are people living in these spaces is ridiculous. Sometimes people will be exploring a cave and they'll reach a point where they can't go any further because they run into empty space. It's probably so high up you'd need a parachute to get down to the next part.

One of the most special spots in Romania is Sarmizegetusa. It is very hard to get to this spot or get people to let you stay there for any good length of time. There is a lot of ruins there and a sundial. There are also hot springs in Romania around there where there is absolutely no bacteria and they contain colloidal silver and monatomic gold, but you won't find them unless your consciousness can access them, unless your mind is ready.

Peter Moon has authored and co-authored many books including Transylvanian Sunrise and its sequel, Transylvanian Moonrise.

Wisdom from Dr. David Anderson~

When Earth moves through space, it bends space time. If we can harness the power and energy generated by Earth's rotation and slow that rotation by 7/10,000ths of a second, we would have enough energy like a nuclear reactor power plant operating for 23,000 years.

Cioclovina Cave in Romania is the site of one of the largest space time motive force discharges on the planet. There is a presence and absence of certain materials in the rocks that can tell us this. There is the presence of non-natural crystal forms called hydroxyllestadite, which can only be formed at extremely high temperatures in an extremely short amount of time. This can only be formed by a very large amount of energy in such a short time that is not natural, it is human or human like made. A time reactor has the capability to produce something like this, such a massive discharge of space time mode of force.

(What I think he's saying in plain English is that someone must have used a time traveling device or some other such "man made" technology in this cave and we have evidence of this because of the material in the rocks that could only form under extreme heat in an extremely short amount of time that is not created by natural forces.)

China is the biggest propagator of superluminal information and then they put a ban on any form of public discussion about this subject. Superluminal information is sending information back in time.

Time Warp Field technology can be used to make controlled experiments like seeds with rapidly speeded growth in a Time Warp Field Chamber. There is often an emotional reaction to the witnessing of these time control reactor experiments. Sometimes people will call months later and say they just can't go on with life knowing that our reality is not what they thought it was now that they know we have the capability to speed up and slow time. This technology can be used to create stasis fields (like to put a person's body in stasis). It can be used to do all kinds of things that could help humanity, like speed the healing process after surgery, but no one can come to a decision on the exact ethics of it. And we may be effecting things with time warp or time changing technology that we are still unclear or lack the understanding of the consequences. Like a time warp experiment going on in one room can unintentionally change the DNA of offspring of plants in another room, we have seen this in our experiments. Then there is also a question of time wars. We really only observe 10% of the real reality that is happening around us.

We see the world as we see it, not the way that it actually is.- Peter Moon's comment

Audience question about CERN warping time and creating the Mandela Effect:

Dr Anderson says as far as he knows they are not doing that, what they are doing is experiments where matter can instantly turn into energy and energy can instantly turn into matter.

Peter Moon and David Anderson say you should all come to Atlantakron because it is amazing.

Wisdom from Duncan Cameron~

Duncan Cameron went through Montauk Project. He was trained to be a programaton.

Don't get pulled into someone or into an event.

We all have a psychic signature. 1 out of 8 people disappear every day, they are reset. Since we all have a psychic signature, anyone on the planet can be found anywhere in less than 15 minutes.

Whatever is now here is not and whatever is not is.

Be conscious of events as they are happening so you can decide whether or not to participate.

Part of the subconscious can be inducted to create matter into physical reality.

Jim Wilson recorded crickets and slowed down the song which came out as organized music. They played at least 5 minutes of this music for us. My input was that I had read an article that wanted to scientifically test how other animals experience time by measuring the speed at which they recognize light flashes. They found that flies experience time 400% slower than we do so to them we look like we're moving in slow motion. My postulation was that if crickets experience time slower than we do this is how they hear their own music when they are singing.

Duncan had a method he wanted to perform, mostly on things like a CD or computer, things having to do with technology, where he would hold his hand out to it, like at the edge of its auric field. He called this the Teloric field- staying in the accrued buildup -> the spaces that are left from being binary are filled in.

Duncan Cameron had a wind wand (he said you could Google this thing), it was a very simple toy-like object that projected sound into the space for a vibratory effect. He let Tamarinda use it, and she enjoyed this very much, then she had this to say about the mirror in the back of the room: The beings beyond the mirror are waiting for me to stop playing around and do something more serious while we have this time together, but they are waiting lovingly and patiently, still they are saying, you are just playing around now.

Back to Tamarinda starting to close the Symposium~

Seated next to Duncan Cameron she says: We projected this event so we could close the Montauk Project. It is done. Duncan Cameron suffered most from this project. Now you belong to the new time from this point on. Part of him exists inside Tamarinda inside their own blood.

The road is now open for you to create your own reality. Do not rely any longer on exterior influences. Create your own reality. The beings who are watching want to know what you will create.

When Peter Moon and Tamarinda walked between the stones in Romania in 2009, point 0 time 0 exists there in Sarmizegatusa, they moved the reality. Now it is a paradox for Tamarinda to come here. She is fulfilling a paradox and she came here to provoke some change. You are all in the future doing extraordinary things. That is why you are all here now in this chamber. Put your minds together and create your own reality.

You must be in charge of this body to command it to work for 10,000 years. Quantic computers register the sum of $1+1=2$, 43 and when you add 43 you get 7. 43 is the action. Beyond gravity all actions accumulate. You can go back in time by going back on that thread of actions.

If someone wants to really see you, they will see you without your computer.

Comment from audience member saying they don't want to live here anymore:

The "No" doesn't function in this reality. It stops things. So if you say, "I don't want to live with this drunken husband anymore," the reality doesn't hear no, no is canceled out and it only hears "I want to live with this drunken husband." To manifest depends on consciousness energy. The words turn into matter. Take the negative out and God will fulfill your wish.

If you want to enter Agartha write to the prime minister of Iceland and he will get the Vikings to take you there, but if your consciousness is not ready, you won't survive the journey and you will die. You will cease to exist before you even get there.

May the Maassen seal remind you not to live in a past and a reality that no longer belongs to you. The three stars are the three stars of the subconscious, or what some from this reality call Fater, Son, and Holy Spirit.

MASSHAKTI means the Mother of Creation. Maassen means the big family of the mother.

You have a big bag of happiness that is closed. Open the bag!

Health is not for sale, but you need to give energy to have energy come back to you.

Go to your home and start to make the change inside you. Release all your attachments and live the reality you want. If you ask for a house, you have to give one first. The bank will give you money only if you give it money first. Your fear to give up the small part will keep you from getting the big part. For instance if you live in a small one bedroom house and it is too expensive and you want a bigger space. You will find a two bedroom apartment in a better location for the same price only when you decide to give up your house and give it to someone else. Your fear to give up your small house and your attachment to it will prevent you from ever finding the big place that is better, you see how this works?

Now you are all in the reality of the future. It is done, so be it.
